Fitness to Study

A key focus of Nexus ICA's educational ethos is person centred education. We understand that the educational experience for each individual is unique, but is also best supported within a community of learners and educators. Sometimes circumstances occur that make it difficult to engage with study to the best of your abilities. This could be noticed by yourself, a friend or a member of staff, and this policy is designed to provide support to you in the most appropriate way. This policy outlines:

- Definitions of 'fitness to study' and when this is relevant
- The procedure for addressing concerns around fitness to study
- How to appeal a decision
- How to return to study when ready

UWL Policy

The UWL policy for fitness to study can be found here:

Nexus ICA Processes

All interactions listed in the above policy with the Director of Student Services will take place within Nexus ICA with the Head of Student Wellbeing.

Where a Fitness to Study Panel is required, the Principal of Nexus ICA will provide consultation on the process.
